Dear Colleagues, Partners, and Friends:

By now you may have heard that Carole Anne Heart, our Executive Director, went on to the spirit world this past Friday, January 25, 2008.

The following are details of the arrangements being made to celebrate her life and service to American Indian people across the country, especially in Education and in Health concerns, also in friendships and advocacy - and to bid her farewell.

Tuesday 29th of January – Wake will be at the Serenity Springs Funeral Home at 4pm to

8 p.m. (3808 Sheridan Lake Road; 605-718-5900)

Wednesday 30th of January – Wake at Mother Butler Gym at 6 p.m. onward (221 Knollwood Drive, 605-343-2165)

Thursday 31st of January – Services at 11 a.m. at Mother Butler Gym
Burial at 12:30 at Mt. View Cemetery, and Community Meal at 2 p.m. back at the Mother Butler Gym

Cards can be sent to the AATCHB office and will be delivered to her mother and daughter. If you have questions, please feel free to call.

Administrative Officer

Carole Anne's daughter, Cante, has supplied the following information for those of you who would like to attend, send cards and/or assist.

“You can help! If you would like to support Carole Anne's Funeral arrangements you can make a monetary or other gift of food or items for a give-away through the AATCHB Office. Debbie Eagle Elk (605) 721-1922 is the contact person. Any contributions will help, and I personally thank you for all that you have done.”- Cante Heart
