

Native American Cancer Research (NACR) and National Native Tobacco Prevention Network (NNTPN) invite you to attend

“The Best and Promising Practices” for Tobacco Control in American Indian and Alaskan (AIAN) Native Communities Regional Meeting

Sessions will explore the meaning of “Best” and “Promising”
Practices and the implications in Indian Country.

 Examples of Evaluated and Successful Tobacco Education Programs

 Example of Successful Ceremonial Tobacco Programs

 Example of Successful AIAN Tobacco Youth Programs

Intended Participants: People working with American Indian tobacco control programs in local tribal, urban, regional, or national communities, and people living with health disparities in Colorado and throughout the nation.

The fee for the Best and Promising Practices Meeting is $ 75.00 per person.

Registration forms are due by February 15, 2008 and can be downloaded by clicking here. Scholarships are available. Completed registration forms can be:

- Faxed to 303-495-3040, or...
- Emailed to NatamLisaH@aol.com, or...
- Mailed to NACR, 363 S Harlan St, Suite 103, Lakewood, CO 80226

The Best and Promising Practices Meeting will be held at the Red Lion Hotel Denver Central, 4040 Quebec Street, Denver, CO. Room rates for the conference are at a special rate of $99 per night. The cut off date for the rooms is February 5, 2008. The reservation number is 1-800-733-5466 or 303-321-6666. The meeting will be 1½ days and will end at noon on Friday. Breakfast both days and lunch on Thursday will be included in the registration fee.

For more information please contact NACR at 303-325-3377 or 363 S. Harlan, Suite 103, Lakewood, Colorado 80226